ORDER:

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents 1 and 2 in interfering with the civil disputes and insisting the petitioner to sell his property in favour of one Chanigarapu Ramesh by using illegal means and under the threat of arrest, as illegal and arbitrary.

3. It is the case of the petitioner that he is the owner of a small piece of land of 13 guntas at Manjulapur village in Sy.No.365 and in respect of the said land one Changirapu Ramesh, son of Ganganna making a false and frivolous claim insisting upon the petitioner to transfer the said land in his favour and at his instance respondents 1 and 2 are insisting upon the petitioner to transfer the said land in favour of the said Ramesh.

4. It is needless to mention that police cannot interfere with the civil disputes. If there is any such interference it is open for the petitioner to make a representation before the 3rd respondent-Superintendent of Police and if no action is taken on the said representation it is always open for the petitioner to approach this Court, but however, without there being any written representation before the 3rd respondent making serious allegations that the respondents 1 and 2 are exceeding their official duties no writ of mandamus can be issued.

5. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
